Merchants Subscribed $1,735

Opened.

The Chamber of Commerce has so far advanced the plan to induce out-of-town shoppers to come to Washington during the Christmas holidays that the arrangements can be carried into effect next week. At a meeting of the retail trade committee, held last night at Gude's Hall, on F street, the plan for "shopping week" were completed.

The secretary of the committee, Mr. Wallraff, reported that $1,735 had been subscribed by the various business firms of the District to finance the scheme. The advertising campaign to be conducted by the Chamber of Commerce in adjoining States was gone over both as to form of advertisements and the choice of papers in which the advertisements are to appear.

Secretary George H. Hall presented a sketch of the booklet which will be published by the Chamber of Commerce in furtherance of the enterprise. It will include a description of the plan to refund the shoppers for their outlay for railroad fare to and from Washington. The refund will amount to about 5 percent of the price of goods purchased by the shoppers while in the city.

Arrangements have been completed whereby the headquarters of the Chamber of Commerce, at the corner of Fourteenth street and Pennsylvania avenue, will be used during the two weeks in December as a waiting room or resting room for the out-of-town shoppers. The rooms will be comfortably furnished and arrangements will be made so that the shopper can have purchases sent to the rooms to be held until he desires to leave for his home. Stationery for writing letters and other things calculated to make the visitors feel welcome and at ease will be placed in the rooms.

One of the features of the retail committee's plan is to have a line of buses running from the Union station to the headquarters of the Chamber of Commerce free of charge to the visitors. The Commissioners will be requested by the committee to grant permission to erect a large sign on the headquarters building.

N. & W. STEAMERS POPULAR WITH JAMESTOWN VISITORS

Cool weather has affected the attendance at Jamestown, and the line, and the various exhibits, displays, etc., all in position. From this city the most comfortable and pleasant route to Jamestown and Norfolk is via the modern boats of the Norfolk and Washington line. Regular night steamers leave daily at 6:30 p. m., but day boats now sail every other day on the odd dates, 8 a. m. instead of daily. Landings are made at Old Point Comfort directly opposite the exposition grounds both going and coming. The preference given travel by boats is certainly justified in the case of these steamers. Their appointments are modern in every respect, state rooms comfortably furnished, the dining service satisfactory, and there is plenty of interest to see along the Potomac and in the Chesapeake. Connections for all points are made at Norfolk. City offices are located at Seventh street wharf and at 705 Fourteenth street.

CANAL A BARGAIN; FRENCH IN 1914, TAYLOR DECLARES

Alabama Representative
Returns From Isthmus
Glowing With Enthusiasm.

The Panama Canal will be finished in 1914; work is progressing on the Isthmus just as fast as the best friends of the Administration could wish, and when the United States took over the ditch begun by the French, we got the biggest bargain of the century. This, in brief, is the glowing report brought to President Roosevelt this morning by Representative Taylor of Alabama. Mr. Taylor has just come back from the Canal Zone where he made a close examination of the great enterprise.

The work done by the French was worth even according to our estimate of values, $36,000,000, said Mr. Taylor. We certainly got one of the biggest bargains in history when we took over the canal from the French. When the great lake is finished that is to be created between the Culabra cut and Gatun dam, it will be large enough to accommodate all the navies afloat, and I predict will be one of, if not the, most dry docking rendezvous in the world.

AMERICAN PROMOTED TO BE TURKISH ADMIRAL

Word has come to Washington that Commodore R. D. Buckman, an American and a naval adviser of the Sultan of Turkey, has been promoted to the rank of rear admiral in the Turkish navy, with the title of pasha. He is at present in Constantinople, connected with the naval bureau in that city, and is at work on plans for some new warships. He was formerly a lieutenant in the navy policy of the Sultan and to be responsible for many copies for which the ruler of Turkey has been given credit. It is not an American officer, but went to Turkey as a civilian more than a dozen years ago. In a short time he was appointed to a low commission in the Turkish Navy, from which he has now risen to the high rank of officer in the country in point of rank.

JAMES LLEWELLYN LODGE WAS GEORGETOWN PASTOR

The Rev. James Llewellyn Lodge, who died Tuesday evening at his home in Gathersburg, Md., was formerly pastor of the Columbia Baptist Church of Georgetown, and was forced to resign from the pastorate on account of ill health, some time ago. While pastor of the Georgetown Church he did much to increase the congregation, which originally was an offshoot of the West Washington Baptist Church. Paralysis was the direct cause of his death. Dr. Lodge was sixty-seven years old, and is survived by his wife, Mrs. Alice Wardell Lodge, and four grown children. They are Dr. J. A. Davis, Lodge, of Limestone College, S. C.; Harry Lodge, an architect and a resident of the city; and two daughters, Mrs. Murray Lodge, of Gathersburg, Md. The funeral will take place tomorrow morning from his late home at Gathersburg, and the interment will be made at Darnestown, Montgomery county, Md.
